

Announcement for Executive Director Position

If you are looking for more meaning in your life, please consider this rare opportunity.

Your position as the Executive Director at Land of Medicine Buddha in Soquel, California offers a precious service opportunity at an FPMT* center. This is a unique environment for inner and outer growth. Your participation will contribute to the vast potential of Land of Medicine Buddha to be a beacon jewel for the planet.

Like many businesses, we are recovering from the challenges of operating a retreat facility during the pandemic and post-pandemic environment. If you have enthusiasm to overcome obstacles, this could be a good fit for you.

We are seeking someone with keen business and financial acumen, management, communication and interpersonal skills. This position can bring immeasurable value to your own life, as well as to the lives of everyone involved with Land of Medicine Buddha, our surrounding community and the world as a whole.

You will have ample opportunities to bring your deep love of the Dharma into practice in a 108-acre retreat facility in an exquisitely beautiful redwood setting near the California coast.

You will be part of a dedicated Sangha and lay community, working to stabilize and create a new vision for our beloved Land of Medicine Buddha to become a flourishing Dharma presence of universal education and more. The benefits are immeasurable.

Minimum Bachelor's Degree (in business and/or management-related fields preferred) and executive leadership experience a plus.

For more information and to receive a job description, please submit a letter of interest along with your resume and/or CV to amymiller@medicinebuddha.org.
